UM HOSTS WESTERN CPE CONFERENCE IN SAN FRANCISCO

MISSOULA—

The University of Montana—Missoula will host the Western Continuing Professional Education conference June 16-21 in San Francisco.

The five-day conference, designed for certified public accountants and executives, will offer six courses on personnel, tax, marketing and accounting topics. Participants can earn up to 40 CPE credits.

Presenters include Vern Hoven, Terry Johnson and Don Gaumer. Hoven, one of America's most sought-after tax presenters, has debated Sen. Richard Armey on tax topics and been quoted in Newsweek magazine during the past year. Johnson is vice president and chief financial officer of Information Enabling Technologies, an accounting and information systems software provider. Gaumer is chief financial officer of Sun Mountain Sports, an internationally known golf bag and clothing company.

Hoven will present Everybody's Federal Tax Update; Johnson, New Developments in Accounting Information Systems; and Gaumer, Accountant to Strategist — Using the Numbers You Prepare. Also offered are an accounting update and courses on conflict resolution in organizations and marketing on the Internet.

The full five-day conference costs $649, but single-day and three-day registrations are offered. To register or get more information, call Julie Hall at (406) 243-6637, or call Western CPE at UM's Center for Continuing Education toll free at (800) 243-7395.
